and market showed itself still sensitive to the 17.7 Northern Securities settlement. Yester the plan of distribution. It was inferred from this that hostilities were again 1.6 threatened over the transcontinental rail 8.6 way situation. The revival in the market 2.4 today followed the issuance of this state ment. The solicitude of the trustees of ii.s the Oregon Short Line participating and collateral a per cent bonds as to their authority to substitute Great Northern and Northern Pacific stock which now 7.0 constitutes the collateral for those bonds offered a very different condition fromthe rumored condition of the Union Pacific stock. The issuance of this state ment was followed by a forious buying of the stock. Twice afterward the price was carried to the highest level of the day, but the advance proved impossible to hold. The inaction awakened in the stocks was credited to persons unversed in stock dealings and their dealings were looked on with timidity. Later the gain fedicated was ignored by some of the 1.1 speculators. In addition to the bank gains there has been a balance from the interior of over $2,000,000. An uneasy ... short interest in London made some de-29.2 mand for Americans. No gold engagements for export were announced but it 7.2 is the common expectation that some will take profits wiped out the day's gains, leaving prices slightly below yesterday's 1.3 closing.
